IN THE EVENT OF A SEARCH WARRANT

If agents claim to have a search warrant, you must let them in. Be polite and professional, and clearly state,

“I do not consent to a search.”

You must answer personal ID questions like name and DOB. Anything else you say will be used against you.

“I choose to remain silent.”

Do not obstruct, argue, or try to explain. Let your attorney answer all questions and protect you.

“I want to call my attorney.”

In summary: stay out of their way, be safe, keep quiet, and call your attorney.
